Member Participation/Fundraising Endeavors

Membership in the Queen Helena Canadian Croatian Cultural and Charitable Society (herein Queen Helena CCC&CS or the group) requires that members be willing to actively participate in, and assist with, the fundraising efforts of the group. The executives and directors/officers of the group will endeavor to split responsibilities amongst the members where possible. Please be aware that by signing you are acknowledging your willingness to participate and assist with these efforts.

Membership Consent

I consent to allowing the individual/s listed on this form to participate in the rehearsals and activities of the Queen Helena Canadian Croatian Cultural & Charitable Society. I understand that the participation of the individual/s is solely at the participant's/participants own risk and I will not hold the organization, its executives, directors, officers, instructors or volunteers liable for any injury which may be sustained while participating in the activities. I authorize any of the organizations executives, directors, officers, instructors or volunteers to obtain emergency medical attention for the individual/s in the event that such attention is necessary.

I acknowledge that I will be held responsible for any costumes, accessories and instruments lent to the listed participant/s in the group. I will return these items promptly upon request in the condition that they were provided to me. I will be held liable for any of the above not returned in their original condition. I also acknowledge having read the Queen Helena code of conduct and that all participants must follow its directives.

Photographs, videos and/or imaging of members or others cannot be taken without the consent of Queen Helena CCC&CS Board of Directors. Members consent to allowing authorized Queen Helena CCC&CS personnel to take photographs, videos and/or imaging of members for lawful purposes such as, but not limited to, promotional material, choreography analysis, etc.

I Agree to the Terms.

I am available to work extra Bingo sessions and can be included in the back-up call list.
